PRESIDENT'S CHAT

Greetings! At this point, we are past the half-way mark of the year 2005 even though it seems to me like we just began 2005. Back in January I realized this year would mark the 20th year of the club's existence. And since January, I have been researching the history of the San Jose IBM Retirement Club.

I have come to realize we all owe a debt of gratitude to the retirees who had the foresight and fortitude to pursue and prevail. Some of the names in the early minutes you probably recognize: Mel Olsen, Gabe Nails, Ray Henningson, 'Rusty' Cambell, Nonie Quilici, Betty Bottoni, Ray Power and Ed Henschel. We have many interesting stories you will hear at the Annual Meeting in October. Mr. Leigh Weimers, San Jose Mercury News columnist, has accepted our invitation to be our guest speaker this year. Your Executive Board is planning an exciting event and I do hope to see you there.

Eyeglasses Report

At our annual picnic we collected 156 pairs of glasses, 9 pairs of lenses and a magnifying glass with a handle.

Some keys were attached to a leather strap in one bag of glasses. If you are missing these keys please call me.

From the "One More Time" bowling league, 2 more pairs of glasses were turned in.

Three phone calls produced 16 pairs of eyeglasses.

Earlier this year 60 pairs were given at the Pasta Fest, and 62 came in from various folks during the first two months of the year.

So the total number is 305 pairs of eyeglasses and lenses so far in 2005!

Thanks to everyone for all these eyeglasses donations. It's all for a good cause.

Sunshine Report

Marcella Olsen, Mel's wife, was having a rough time in June. It took the doctors a month to finally diagnose her problem as cancer, lymphoma, which had attached itself to the liver. She is now on lots of treatments and medications including chemo, on an out-patient basis. Marcie is tired, but hanging in there.

Vincenzana Bartasi (Vinci) was going up some steps, fell backwards and broke her hip. She was in the hospital 3 days, then in rehab for 4 days, and now she is home. She is walking, and doing whatever she wants, with a walker. She wants to thank everyone for the cards, and phone calls, and said if you want to come and see her, please call first, to make sure she is home.

The Furlong family would like to thank the IBM retirees for their thoughts and prayers sent our way during our son's illness and his passing. Glen Furlong

Topsy Thompson,
the Sunshine Lady!!

Walking Cultural Tours

Ardenwood Historic Farm Fremont, California Thursday, September 15, 2005

"Return with us now to those thrilling days of yesteryear..." Well, they weren't all very thrilling. Most needed hard work in the hot sun on the farms that fed the nation. Such a farm is the Ardenwood Historical Farm, preserved as a museum and a working farm from centuries past. Seeking a fortune in the goldfields in 1949, George Washington Patterson "struck gold" in the fertile farm fields right here in the Bay Area.

"A visit to Ardenwood is a journey back to the time of the Patterson Ranch—a prosperous 19th century estate including a beautiful mansion and elaborate gardens. Today, the Historic Farm exhibits agricultural practices from the 1870s to the present."

We'll arrive at the farm at 11:00 AM for a horse-drawn train ride. Bring your lunches and pot-luck goodies on the train—we'll be eating in the farm yard at 11:30. (Deviled eggs will not be refused.)

After that, we'll split the group in half for docent-led tours of the mansion. First come, first served at 12:30 and 12:45. There will be free time to explore the wonderful barns and equipment sheds as well as the beautiful Victorian Gardens. We can stroll back to the main gate at our leisure, perhaps buying some fresh-picked, organic vegetables sold there.

Meet at 10:00 AM, the usual "Park and Ride" lot at Curtner and Highway 87. We'll ride-pool; riders pay $3. To get there, go north on Highway 17 (I-880), turning left onto Highway 84 for a mile or so. Turn right onto Ardenwood Blvd. The main gate is right there. We've made plans for 30 folks. Please call Fred for reservations.

Dear Editor,

I am developing a list of the Club members who are the proud owners of cars that are considered Antique, Classic, Special interest or Street rods. Send me an email with info if you qualify. The car should be a 1980 model or before and be "street" worthy. Indicate if you have or would be willing to show the car. Based upon the input, we will decide what type of fun we can initiate.

Adopt-A-Highway

Wednesday, July 13, 2005

It was a scorching hot day with a breeze blowing and one of the hottest days (if not the hottest) we have been out. 20 volunteers armed with plenty of water, energy, and sunny attitudes set out to conquer the annual 4th of July litterbug festival evidence. New recruits Al Arabia, Bob Schneider, Lize Johannes, and Dick Sementelli joined our army in waging war against litter. After our battle was won, we were rewarded with a big bag count, a sense of accomplishment, and ice cold watermelon. Our winning score was 47 bags, bringing our total to 1507.

Mel Olsen brought his sickle and trimmed all the weeds around our sign. He ran out of bags and left about 5 bags worth of cut weeds that hopefully, Caltrans will pickup. Speaking of Caltrans, they have renewed our permit for five years!

Help from Caltrans: weeds were mowed at the Santa Teresa off ramp. Wow, what a difference a mow makes!

We did not find any treasure unless you count some dear befuddled husband's questionnaire from a church sponsored marriage encounter. He lays out a lot of the goals that all of us old married folks have been struggling with for years. You can see it on our display at the annual club meeting.

Bob Schneider developed a new technique in litter retrieval when he found a long metal post a far distance from where the bags were to be piled. He introduced the post to the Javelin throw. Get the picture? It took a lot of throws while filling his bag in between.

Returns: A man lost his Wells Fargo ATM card, health insurance card, credit card, & prepaid phone card. We returned them to Wells Fargo on Blossom Hill who said they would mail them to him. It's a bummer to replace an insurance card. We returned a Costco employee's ID badge, who turned out to be an ex employee. It doesn't take too much imagination to figure out how it became litter.

Lost & Found: We knew the party was over when 3 empty pint bottles of Canadian Mist were discovered. A 3' diameter table top (sans legs), an intact dining room chair, mandatory rubber glove (don't you just love those hot colors they are now?), pieces of tires, & a jeep parked on shoulder without a note or ticket on it. Ray Orr found a brand new (in it's original packaging) kneeling and sitting pad that he would not take it home, "my wife will put me to work" was his reasoning. Mitsubishi emblem off a car, Boss Scaggs CD, 2 hub caps, & warped carbide tip Skil saw blade. Was sad to find a baby's binky, a brown blanket square with satin trim on the top.

Money: $2.65 all "tired" coins (car tires do almost as good a job as those amusement park coin flattening machines). One mega millions lottery ticket was found and will be checked out by the finder. Must have been a dud!

We have a date with you: see you at retirement club's 20th annual meeting Tuesday, October 4, 2-4 PM in Bldg. 55 cafeteria. Drop by our exhibit.

Hikes

Marin Headlands Hike Thursday, September 22, 10:30 AM

On this hike, we'll be exploring a beautiful area just across the Golden Gate Bridge in Marin County. The Marin Headlands were formerly the property of the US Military, but in 1974 the land was turned over to the National Park Service who now administers it. The area is a resource rich in human history and natural beauty. This hike takes us deep into the headlands, where we will discover remnants of the area's military past, breathtaking vistas, and a landscape both wild and accessible. When we scouted out this hike, the area was shrouded in summer fog, but we could imagine the sweeping views from the hilltops overlooking the bay.

The hike follows a loop route of about 5-1/2 miles and is moderately strenuous. There is an 880-foot climb from sea level and some steep, gravel covered downhills, so you will need to wear your hiking shoes. We also recommend a hiking stick to aid you on those downhills. The route has very little shade (not a problem if it's foggy) but we are hoping for a clear day in September so be sure to wear a hat and bring your sunscreen. We plan to eat our lunch at an abandoned radar station dubbed "Hill 88." Along the way we will see the ruins of Army gun batteries that guarded the Bay in the past. As we near the end of the loop, we'll visit the Marin Headlands visitor center to learn more about the area.

For those of you who would like to join us but don't want to do the entire route, there is an alternate 2-1/2 mile loop. We will be leading the longer hike but will provide you with a map and directions as both hikes start and end at the same place.

For an optional activity after the hike, we will drive a short distance to the only restored Nike Missile site in the USA. There we can take a guided tour led by a knowledgeable park ranger who will give fascinating insights into the history of this once vital defense facility. The tour takes about 30 minutes.

Now...directions! It took us about 1-1/2 hours to get there from Santa Clara. Drive north on Highway 280 to the 19th Avenue/Park Presidio exit just beyond Daly City. Continue on California Highway 1 North – over Junipero Serra Boulevard, 19th Avenue, and Park Presidio – to the Golden Gate Bridge. Immediately after crossing the bridge, take the Alexander Avenue exit. Turn left at the first stop, go under the freeway and then turn right onto Conzelman Road, following the signs for the Golden Gate National Recreation Area and Marin Headlands. After climbing steeply into the headlands for a bit over a mile – the views are spectacular – turn right onto McCullough Road and head downhill, away from the ocean. Turn left onto Bunker Road, drive past Field Road, bearing left at Mitchell Road. Continue past Rodeo Lagoon and the buildings of Fort Cronkhite. Drive to the end of the road and park in the parking lot. There are restrooms nearby.

Due to the distance we do recommend carpooling. If you need a ride or have room to take others with you contact Lee Westfall at 225-7667. Lee has graciously offered to coordinate carpools for this particular trip.

We hope to see you in September. Bring your lunch and plenty of water.

Fun Stuff

If you receive e-mail, you may have seen this before. It is at least 5 years old. But this editor likes it and this page would have been blank without it. So reading this page is optional (I suppose all of them are, since we're retired.)

The European Commission has just announced an agreement whereby English will be the official language of the European Union rather than German, which was the other possibility.

As part of the negotiations, the British Government conceded that English spelling had some room for improvement and has accepted a 5-year phase-in plan that would become known as "Euro-English".

In the first year, "s" will replace the soft "c". Certainly, this will make the sivil servants jump with joy.

The hard "c" will be dropped in favour of "k". This should klear up konfusion, and keyboards kan have one less letter.

There will be growing publik enthusiasm in the sekond year when the troublesome "ph" will be replaced with "f". This will make words like fotograf 20% shorter.

In the 3rd year, publik akseptanse of the new spelling kan be expekted to reach the stage where more komplikated changes are possible.

Governments will enkourage the removal of double letters which have always ben a deterrent to akurate speling.

Also, al wil agre that the horibl mes of the silent "e" in the languag is disgrasful and it should go away.

By the 4th yer people wil be reseptiv to steps such as replasing "th" with "z" and "w" with "v".

During ze fifz yer, ze unesesary "o" kan be dropd from vords kontaining "ou" and after ziz fifz yer, ve vil hav a reil sensibl riten styl.

Zer vil be no mor trubl or difikultis and evrivun vil find it ezi tu understand ech oza. Ze drem of a united urop vil finali kum tru.

Und efter ze fifz yer, ve vil al be speking German like zey vunted in ze forst plas.

If zis mad you smil, pleas pas on to oza pepl.

Boulder Creek July 18, 2005. No "Funny Things That Happen on a Golf Course" or "Shot of the Day" to report, so here are three golf jokes. 1. My father-in-law, who played golf all his life, has his own definition of the word G.O.L.F.: Getting Old and Living Fine! 2. The schoolteacher was taking her first golfing lesson. "Is the word spelt p-u-t or p-u-t-t?" she asked the instructor. "P-u-t-t is correct," he replied. "Put means to place a thing where you want it. Putt means merely a vain attempt to do the same thing." 3. Two long time golfers were standing overlooking the river. One golfer looked to the other and said, "Look at those idiots fishin' in the rain." We had a nice turnout of 43 golfers. The format of play was "1-2-3". Here are the results:

Place/Score		Team
1/121	Gene Levitre	Gil Feller	Gary Poole	Cliff Norfleet
2/122	Jerry Condensa	Marge Condensa	Gil Maes	Jim Betz
